LORI + BEN || DREAM BARN WEDDING

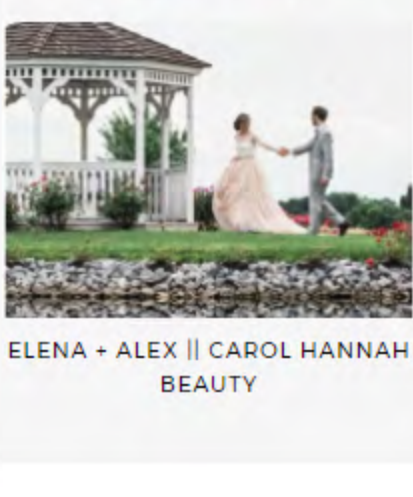

If you're looking for a dream barn wedding, this is it! This beautiful couple met in LA and moved to Chapel Hill for the groom to attend UNC. They tied the knot at the Feathering Barn in Pittsboro, North Carolina. Located near Chapel Hill, the Barn provided in-house florists, catering, cake artists and a planner. The bride used her creative skills to make all of the additional details including the signs and centerpieces. Impressive, right? This wedding was the perfect combination of Southern charm and elegance, and the photos by Iriska Arden Photography captured the big day beautifully!
